

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT 2000

The Local Authorities (Referendums) (Petitions) (England) Regulations 2011

Notice of Verification Number

The Local Government Act 2000 provides that electors in the Council's area can petition the Council to hold a referendum on whether a local authority should change to a different form of governance. A petition must be signed by at least 5% of the local government electors for the district.

In accordance with the above Regulations, the number that is equal to 5% of the number of local government electors shown in the revised register of electors having effect on the 15th February 2014 is 4382.

This figure will have effect for the purposes of determining the validity of Petitions presented from 1st April 2014 to 31st March 2015.

The number equal to 5% of the local government electors for 1st December 2014 will be published within 14 days of the 15th February 2015. If this number is less than 4382, the number to be used for verification purposes in relation to any petition submitted for the period beginning on the date of publication of the lesser number until 31st March 2015 shall also be that lesser number.
