Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.

Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.

Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.

Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.

Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.

Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.

Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.

Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.

Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.

Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.

Precautions to be taken against Weils Disease

A. Always wear protective clothing i.e. gloves
B. Cover all cuts or abrasions with a waterproof dressing until completely healed.
C. Do not eat, drink or smoke whilst working.
D. On completion of work always wash hands and forearms.
E. Whenever you visit your Doctor on account of illness show this card.

Symptoms: Initial flu-like symptoms 3-4 days followed by persistent severe headaches and general aches and pains.

Doctor: Should you suspect that this person is suffering from Weils disease it is essential that blood samples are sent to a laboratory immediately for analysis.