

Dignity at Work

You are invited to attend a free workshop on Dignity at Work, crucial for all in the modern workplace.

When does banter cross the line into unwanted behaviour? What is the difference between a firm manager and a bullying manager? What rights do employees have in law to be protected from certain behaviour?

Jane Rawlins, HR Consultant and founder of Camino HR, will provide this pragmatic, interactive and thought-provoking workshop. The session will explore all aspects of workplace bullying and harassment, helping you to recognise and challenge unwanted behaviour. It is open to all job levels and is a great opportunity to bring along your own examples and queries.
