Under the Freedom of information act I would like the names of the awarding committee as I would like to ask them why they gave the contract to a company who according to the guardian website (<https://www.theguardian.com/business/2008/apr/17/construction>) is amongst the list of companies issued by the OFT following its investigation into alledged price-rigging in the construction sector.

Also on the net again it is alledged (<http://419advancefeefraud.blogspot.co.uk/2015/06/r-g-carter-construction-uk-fake-job.html>)

I too would like to know what legal action if any, is be taken? Why have you not asked them to fit a totally new lift? whose was responsible for missing this vital clause out of the contract? Who too, is responsible for missing out this vital clause out of the contract. "The contractor will ensure, that they or any sub-contractor will hold sufficient parts as to effect repair within 24 hours (Break down not been on a week-end or Bank holiday) for the period of the guaranttee, if no guarantee given then for a period not exceeding five years.
